

Cybercrime & Technical Investigations Virtual Training Conference 2020

September 9 - 11

The FLETC Cybercrime & Technical Investigations Training Conference – CYCON-2020, will now be conducted as a virtual event between September 9-11, 2020. Hosted by the FLETC Cyber Division, with support from the FLETC’s Legal Division and the eLearning Branch, this event will offer multiple presentations in a variety of current cyber related topics.

Cost:

No cost to attendees for participation

Registration:

<https://www.fletc.gov/cybercrime-and-technical-investigations-conference>

Must be sworn law enforcement personnel, or non-sworn employees who directly support the law enforcement mission. Non-sworn personnel attending must provide a written letter of sponsorship by their law enforcement organization via email to fletc-cybercrimeconference@fletc.dhs.gov

Questions:

Contact the Cyber Division via email:
fletc-cybercrimeconference@fletc.dhs.gov

FLETC personnel:

Branch Chief John Leech at (912) 267-3206
Branch Chief Kenneth Wagoner at (912) 267-2359
Division Chief John Riley at (912) 261-4527

FLETC Cybercrime & Technical Investigations Training Conference Website:

<https://www.fletc.gov/cybercrime-and-technical-investigations-conference>

