

2018 Colorado Law Enforcement Conference

Local, state, and federal partners working together to make
Colorado safer

2018 Colorado Law Enforcement Conference

Tuesday, April 24 - Thursday, April 26, 2018

Beaver Run Resort and Conference Center
620 Village Road Breckenridge, CO 80424

Sponsored by the United States Attorney's Office, District of Colorado

In collaboration with the:

County Sheriffs of Colorado;
Colorado Association of Chiefs of Police;
Rocky Mountain Special Agents-in-Charge Association;
Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association (Chapter 63); and Rocky Mountain Inspector General Council

Colorado law enforcement personnel are invited to attend the 2018 Colorado Law Enforcement Conference from April 24 to April 26 in Breckenridge, Colorado. Conference registration is FREE for Colorado Law Enforcement (Municipal, County, State and Federal), and employees of affiliate law enforcement organizations.

Come together to renew law enforcement partnerships, make new connections and learn valuable skills to help make Colorado a safer place to live.

Featured topics this year include:

1. Critical Incident Response Case Study: Las Vegas — Lessons for Law Enforcement Partnerships
"One October: the Mandalay Bay Mass Shooting"
Aaron Rouse, Special Agent-in-Charge, FBI, Las Vegas Field Office
Andrew Duncan, Criminal Chief, USAO, Nevada
2. Officer Wellness: Surviving a Critical Incident — Lessons from Sandy Hook
"Police Officer Wellness vs. Police Officer Culture"
Gary MacNamara, Police Chief, Fairfield, Connecticut
3. Responding to the Opioid Epidemic in Colorado
Suneeta Hazra, Criminal Chief, USAO, Colorado
Robert Valuck, PhD, RPh, Professor, Department of Clinical Pharmacy, Univ. of CO, Denver
4. Other Topics Include: Marijuana, Asset Forfeiture, Responding to Violent Crime, Hate Crimes, and more.
Presented by the USAO and law enforcement partners.

Register today — click on the following link:

<https://usaocotraining.org/LEConference>

Confirmation of status as law enforcement personnel or employment with an affiliate law enforcement organization may be required to complete conference registration.